

Class 5 Newsletter

Children have continued to develop their interest of life cycles in class. Therefore, we will continue this work further during the summer term. You can help by talking to your child about the different living things you see, when you are out and about.

Our Burnhill trip will take place for Nursery Pupils on 5 July 2017 from 9am until 12.30pm. If your child is not in Nursery that session, they may swap from the afternoon to the morning if they would like to attend. Children will need sensible clothing and footwear for the walk across to our nature site and pond dipping activities. A separate letter will be sent out about this trip to Nursery Pupils.

School Closes on 21 July 2017. Children may come to school in non-uniform for a reward morning with party games.

Dates to remember:

- Reception Induction into Year 1 - 19.6.17 onwards
