

Young Carers Policy 2022

Tow Law Millennium Primary School Young Carers Policy

At Tow Law Millennium Primary School we believe that all children and young people have the right to learn, enjoy and achieve, regardless of what is happening at home. We have developed our Young Carers Policy to show how we will support any pupil who helps to look after someone at home. It is also used to demonstrate how we will try to relieve some of the worries which young carers have about home and their school work.

Defining a Young Carer:

A young person under 18 years of age who helps to look after a family member who is disabled, physically or mentally ill or has a substance misuse problem. Caring can involve physical or emotional care, or being responsible for someone's safety and wellbeing. The level of responsibility assumed by a young carer is often inappropriate to their age and beyond the level of simply helping out at home as part of the process of growing up.

Tow Law Millennium Primary School acknowledges that there are likely to be young carers among its pupils, and that being a young carer can have an adverse effect on their education.

Young carers might experiences:

- Being late or absent because of responsibilities at home
- Concentration problems, anxiety or worry in school
 - Emotional distress
 - Tiredness in school
- Lack of time for homework
 - Poor attainment
- Becoming angry or frustrated
- Isolation - feeling no-one understands
 - Bullying
 - Low self esteem
- Skipping meal times at home. Eg. Breakfast

We will:

- Have a designated member of staff with special responsibility for young carers (Carly Taylor).
- Let all new pupils know who the designated member of staff is.

Young Carers Policy 2022

- Put young carers in touch with the local Young Carers Service (Family Action.)
 - Run PSHE lessons on the challenges faced by young carers where appropriate within the curriculum.
 - Discuss and cover RSE topics in relation to family and relationships.
- Have termly assemblies to maintain understanding among pupils of young carers.
- Respect the right to privacy and only share information with people who need to know in order to help a young carer.
- Follow child protection procedures regarding any young carer at risk of significant harm due to inappropriate levels of caring.
- Ensure that staff, through training, are aware of the warning signs which may indicate that a pupil is a young carer.
 - Be accessible to parents/carers who have mobility/communication difficulties and involve them in parents' evening etc.
- Provide facilities for young carers to meet where possible and develop a nurture group within school.
- Provide time for young carers to be vocal about any worries they have at appropriate times of the day.
